AROUND THE SEC

WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW

There are a ton of compelling matchups when the Gators travel to Tuscaloosa - and many center around Florida's ability or inability to score against Bama. However, Nick Saban has one of the best receivers in the country in Amari Cooper and Will Muschamp has one of the best corners in the nation in Vernon Hargreaves III. It will be interesting to see Cooper, DeAndrew White and company matching up with the Gator secondary.

Can Kansas State hang with Auburn?

This week we're treated to an excellent appetizer to the weekend as Auburn gets an interesting test from K State. Auburn probably takes care of business, and the Tigers aren't on a short week because they were off last week, but things do tend to get crazy on Thursday nights.

Can Miss. State move up in the West?

Both Mississippi schools are considered improved this year, but the perception is they're still very much behind the top four in the West. A win over LSU would give them a marquee win and signal a major step forward.

Is Florida as bad as we think?

Most people aren't too high on the Gators after they barely edged out Kentucky at home. They'll get a chance to prove those people wrong with a strong showing at Alabama.

SAMMIE COATES

Auburn Junior WR

by: Aaron Weiss

Nick Marshall's favorite target has returned, just in time to take on Kansas State, where he almost signed out of JUCO. Coates only had one catch against Arkansas before suffering a left leg injury, but he was viewed as a Biletnikoff Award candidate prior to that. After having 902 receiving yards and seven touchdowns last season, expect the offense to work early to get Coates the ball, and to get themselves the lead.

PREPARE LIKE A CHAMPION

8:00 ON
 by: Avery Wilks

Florida State's clinical destruction of Clemson last Oct. 19 was pretty much the only thing that went right for USC fans that day, as the Gamecocks suffered a confounding loss to lowly Tennessee just hours before. Will the Tigers fall victim to a similar fate this season with the game played in Tallahassee? Or are Clemson's chances closer to 50-50, as head coach Dabo Swinney estimated them to be after the 51-14 home loss last year? FSU isn't thrashing teams quite like it did last season, and Heisman Trophy winner Jameis Winston is suspended for the first half for jumping on a table in the student union and shouting vulgar language. The Tigers are still figuring some things out on their end as well, but don't be surprised if Clemson thinks the unthinkable Saturday.

12:00 ON ESPN 2

The Falcons are fresh off of a road win at Indiana, their first win over a Big Ten team since 2007. Wisconsin is led by former Gamecock QB Tanner McEvoy, who has shown improvement since a season-opening loss to LSU. The Badgers will have to dominate the line of scrimmage to avoid the upset.

7:00 ON ESPN

The SEC West calls to mind one of those war movie scenes where a horn sounds and everyone just clashes into each other. It's just a murderer's row of tough teams. Dan Mullen's Bulldogs have just quietly gone about their business, and even though Tiger Stadium is extremely difficult at night it could be a test for the Tigers too.

7:30 ON FOX

WVU hung around with Alabama longer than most thought and this type of matchup and the opportunity it presents is a reason the Mountaineers joined the Big 12. The couch-burning potential here is real. Expect an outstanding atmosphere in Morgantown.

3:30 ON CBS SPORTS

CBS sure knows how to pick 'em. Florida looked incredibly average in an overtime victory against Kentucky in the Swamp last week, and now the Gators - whether they want them or not - get 'Bama. A victory for the Crimson Tide in its home stadium on Saturday opens the door even wider for USC to climb back to the top of the SEC East ladder. I'd keep an eye on this one.

DYLAN THOMPSON

(RS) Senior Quarterback

Thompson had arguably his best game ever last week in leading the Gamecocks to an upset over Georgia, completing 70 percent of his passes for 271 yards and four total touchdowns. Now he returns to where it all began, Vanderbilt Stadium. Thompson was dreadful in his first significant playing time against the Commodores in 2012, missing on all three of his passes and rushing five times for a net loss of five yards. The Gamecocks quickly relieved him in favor of a still-injured Connor Shaw and escaped Nashville with a 17-13 victory. Now two years wiser and more experienced, can Thompson conquer the scuffling Commodores on their home turf?

CALEB AZUBIKE

Junior Linebacker

Azubike is listed as a linebacker, but the Nigeria native can also put his hand in the dirt and play on the defensive line. After missing the season-opener for disciplinary reasons, Azubike is tied for third in the conference with four sacks in his last two games. He racked up seven tackles and two sacks in Vanderbilt's first SEC contest against Ole Miss. Look for Azubike to be the bright spot in Derek Mason's 3-4 defensive scheme.

VEGAS REPORT

The Wynn in Las Vegas opened USC as a 20.5-point road favorite over Vanderbilt early Sunday evening. Within an hour, the book moved the Gamecocks to 21 and by Monday at lunch, the number was up to 21.5. The Wynn adjusted USC to 22 by late Wednesday afternoon. As of 2:30 p.m. Eastern on Thursday, most spots had USC favored by 21.5 or 22. The total for 'over/under' wagers started at 55.5 on Wednesday, but it was down to 53.5 early Thursday afternoon. A few offshores were actually as low as 53.

PREDICTIONS

Wes Mitchell

South Carolina has played some sloppy games in Nashville, but this Vandy team is one of the worst we've seen in some time. I expect the Gamecocks to continue to improve and to win the game, but it may be closer for parts of the game than people expect.

📊 34-17 ★

Rixon Lane

The Gamecocks always seem to play ugly football in Nashville. However, Vanderbilt is a terrible team and the South Carolina defense will be looking to make a statement.

📊 27-10 ★

Jeff Tyner

Conventional Wisdom says USC will play down to its competition, resulting in a frustrating 60 minutes. However, A2M's season-opening beatdown was only three weeks ago. The Gamecocks should be hungry for their turn.

📊 49-17 ★

Aaron Weiss

Stephen Rivers was supposed to be the chosen one. The favorite son. How could the gypsy woman lie to him?

EXPERT TAKE

Mike Farrell
National Recruiting Director
Rivals.com

On USC's 2015 DE Class:

"Easily one of the best in the country even with the injury concerns surrounding (Shameik) Blackshear. If he can get and stay healthy, he's a potential star at the college level with his length and athleticism. Lewis is ready to come in and play right away and could play outside or inside and Sawyer is also college ready now and a dominant outside rusher. Key will continue to add to his frame and could be the guy with the highest ceiling here if he can get big enough. And Whitlow gets overlooked a bit but he's another guy with potential down the line. It's a strong, strong group."

As a four-star and Rivals250 prospect out of high school, Sawyer drew a hefty list of scholarship offers but his academic situation prevented him from enrolling at USC after signing with the Gamecocks in February. He got out of high school early and headed off to junior college, allowing him to enroll next summer in Columbia if all goes well. Sawyer has the size, athleticism, and pass-rushing skill set to contribute early next season for the Gamecocks which will give a DE group that needs more pass rushers a shot in the arm.

SLOW-COOKER BRISKET AND A TACO BAR ARE TAILOR-MADE FOR TAILGATING AT HOME

by: Ann Thrash

SLOW-COOKED COWBOY BRISKET

INGREDIENTS

- 2 tbsp. McCormick Grill Mates Cowboy Rub
- 1 tbsp. dark brown sugar
- 2 tsp. smoked paprika
- 1½ tsp. kosher salt
- 1 tsp. ground cumin
- 1 flat-cut brisket (about 6 lbs.)
- 1 large sweet onion, sliced
- 3 garlic cloves, minced
- 1 cup chopped fresh cilantro (optional)
- Taco Shells
- Your favorite toppings, such as:
 - salsa
 - crumbled queso fresco
 - Mexican cheese blend
 - guacamole
 - shredded lettuce, etc.

This weekend's game at Vanderbilt is the first road game of the season, so many of us who've spent the last two Saturdays and the previous Thursday at Williams-Brice will be watching this one at home – and that change isn't lost on Coach Spurrier.

In his press conference on Tuesday, he said, "It'll be a different environment. Obviously, having three at home here at Williams-Brice, having a huge home crowd that was instrumental in our success last week and the week before, it won't quite be there (at Vandy), but I'm sure we'll have a good congregation of our fans in Nashville to help cheer us on."

If you're making the trip to the game, you won't have any trouble finding good eats – Nashville is a great food city. This weekend's recipe is designed for those of us who are staying home and watching the Gamecocks on the SEC Network. It's a tasty slow-cooker beef brisket that's so tender it practically shreds itself at the touch of a fork. Just set up a taco bar in the kitchen with all your favorite toppings – salsa, guacamole, cheese, salsa, etc. – then heat up some taco shells and let folks serve themselves.

The recipe, which I stumbled on in a recent Country Living magazine, gets its name from the main seasoning – a McCormick Grill Mates rub that you'll find in the spice aisle at the grocery store. This serves a good-size group, and we found that the few leftovers we had will reheat well (or they can be frozen). Note that the cilantro is totally optional. Cilantro is one of those things you either love or hate; we're in the second group, so we left it out, and it didn't affect the recipe a bit.

DIRECTIONS

In a small bowl, stir together the first 5 ingredients. Trim fat from the brisket, leaving a thin layer in place. Cut brisket into 3-inch chunks.

Rub the seasoning mixture evenly into each piece of brisket. Place onions and garlic in bottom of a 5- to 6-quart slow cooker and place meat on top. Sprinkle with cilantro, if using.

Cover and cook on low for 8 to 9 hours, or until brisket shreds easily with a fork. Serve on warm taco shells with toppings of choice. Makes about 15 servings.

In his past two games, both of which he's started, he has 11 total tackles and two forced fumbles. John McClain (no relation to Die Hard) of the Houston Chronicle has dubbed him "a turnover-inducing machine." No sophomore slump for Jungle Boi Swagg in Houston.
